ASSOCIATION OR-GANIZED FOR OHIO VALLEY ROUTE

Meeting at Manchester Results in Organization to Push Ohio River Route for Trans-continental Highway—
All Valley Towns Unite.

Meeting of representatives from the various cities and towns along the Ohio River from Cincinnati to Portsmouth held at Manchester Monday evening resulted in the organization of an Ohio Valley Road Association the chief purpose of which will be to exploit the advantages of a route along the river for the trans-continental road through the state of Ohio as against any other proposed route for this great Federal highway.

Quite a large delegation from Maysville intended and planned to attend the Manchester meeting but because of the heavy rains and the fact that a bridge on the route had been washed out, the local delegation could not attend.

The meeting at Manchester was quite an enthusiastic one. Mr. John Hausserman, of New Richmond, Ohio, was unanimously chosen President of the association and Mr. Robert Stivers, of Ripley was made Treasurer. All the counties along the river route will be organized. Both sides of the river will have Vice Presidents and Mayor Thomas M. Russell, of Maysville, has been chosen Vice President for Mason county. It is the purpose of the organization to enlist at least 2,000 members on each side of the river at an initiation fee of one dollar each and funds thus raised will be used by the association in promotion of the river route. Another very important meeting of the association will be held in the town of Ripley within the next few weeks at which time plans will be perfected. Great interest is shown in Maysville and it is expected that a large membership for the association will be recruited here within a very short time.

Maysville Odd Fellows are now rather busy getting every thing ready for the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky which will be held here in November. A very large delegation from all parts of the state is expected here.

ELLSBERRY HOMES ARE FLOODED BY CREEK

Three Mile Creek in Ohio Higher Than It Was Ever Before Known—Thousands of Dollars Damage Done.

Three Mile Creek in Brown county near Aberdeen did more damage to growing crops and property after the hard rain of Monday than this creek has ever heretofore done. Water in the creek valley was from three to four feet higher than it had ever before been and scores of acres of corn were covered by the rush.

The village of Ellsberry located on the banks of the creek was probably damaged more than any other community. Water was in many of the houses in the village and the Cochran blacksmith shop was washed from its foundation and carried away some distance.

The water was four foot deep in the covered bridge which spans the creek near Silekaway and many chickens were drowned. One cow was carried away and a horse was carried from near Ellsberry to a point near the bridge at the Ripley pike but was saved.

Damage done to crops along the fertile creek bottom cannot be estimated but will run into thousands of dollars.

On September 7th at 2 o'clock p. m. I will sell at public auction, on the premises, my house and lot of 98 1/2 acres on the lower road at the extreme west end of the city. Also a horse and farming implements.

STRONG SHERIFF
TICKET SELECTED BY REPUBLICANS

Mr. C. M. Devore, Republican Candidate for Sheriff, Selected Strong Men As His Deputies in November Election—Announcement Made.

Mr. C. M. Devore, the Republican candidate for Sheriff of Mason county, Wednesday announced his selection for deputies and his selection has caused a round of much favorable comment in all parts where the news has rapidly spread.

Mr. Conrad P. Raspe, of this city, has been selected as the city representative on the ticket. Mr. Raspe is one of the best known young men in Maysville and Mason county and has a great personal following in all parts of the county. Mr. Raspe Wednesday announced his withdrawal from the race for City Collector and Treasurer and his entrance into the sheriff's race. He will bring to the Republican nominee the support of scores of warm personal friends. He has spent his entire life in Maysville and is popular among all voters.

Mr. Clarence Applegate, of Mayslick, is announced as the other deputy. Mr. Applegate is also a young man very popular in his neighborhood. He has made a success of his own business at Mayslick and has gathered to himself a great host of personal friends who will support him strongly in this race.

With the popularity of the nominee and the addition of these two most popular young men as deputies, the Republican ticket for the office of Sheriff is one of the strongest that any party has ever offered in Mason county.

The young couple left this morning on a motor trip to Cincinnati, Middletown and Zanesville, where they will visit relatives. Upon their return they will take up their residence in a beautifully furnished home at 1536 Fifth street. THE EAGLE ON THE DOLLAR SCREAMS.

Italy has recognized that the American dollar is king of the world by accepting it instead of the British pound sterling as the standard by which gold values are measured. Europeans who used to say that the United States was the land of the dollar did not intend to be wholly complimentary, and they are even less complimentary now that the land of the dollar is the creditor nation of the world; but the rule of exchange is not based on compliments.

The American dollar represents world power. It is the conquering eagle. It gets tribute in every land. It enters the halls of finance and says: Pay me. It indicates dominion and supremacy. Americans think of it as having lost part of its value in their own markets, but it is the one unimpaired currency.

The United States sits on the top of the world, and if Americans use the good judgment they sometimes are credited with the United States will continue to sit on top of the world. The center of things has been removed from Great Britain to the United States. The United States maintained the gold standard during the war. It was the great reservoir of its allies. It was revealed as an almost inexhaustible source of power in men and materials.

Many Europeans are less impressed by America's performance in the war than many Americans think they might be. We realize that Europe was hard hit, badly wounded, and is hither, and that to Europeans America's position may seem to have been attained because of their suffering. But it could not have been attained if the strength of the country had not been such as to stand an enormous drain without weakening.

If we had had four years instead of a little less than twenty months of war, and had furnished battlefields as well as men and materials, we should not be so sturdy; but even in that test we believe the elements of power would have been more strikingly revealed and the situation now virtually the same.

The American dollar earned its position. It now marches into Europe as a Roman legion used to march. It is the symbol and the instrument of a young, strong nation. It is the expression of the vitality of a young giant. Europe may say that the young giant is a barbarian. He is clear eyed and has a long stride. If he uses ordinary care in watching his step he'll not be in anybody's dust.

In watching his step he'll be strong but not rough. He will not invite a group of nations to get a gang together and try to pull him down. He will not try to make everybody mad at him at once. They are all pretty mad now, but they need not be infuriated into action.

The eagle is boss, but it can be an easy boss, not so arranging its affairs that it hasn't a friend in the world, and not being so easy that it hasn't an enemy.

THINKS LOVE, NOT LAW, CURE FOR IMMORALITY.

It is the judgment of a Winona Lake evangelist that this is the most immoral period of history. In the sense that there is worldwide demonstration of disregard for law and disruption of order in extent and degree never before presented he has much in support of his argument. It is true in America and it is true in practically all countries that, not necessarily through fault of their own, the courts have never before been made travesty and jurisprudence a joke. This condition is not universal, but it is epidemic. The best of people in lamentably large numbers have come to regard the passage of any privilege-restrictive ordinance or statute a challenge to defiance of its provisions which they simply will not let pass.

There have been many periods of wickedness in the history of all lands and always there has been by many classes studied disregard for any society protective measure to the full extent of its lack of enforcement. The people in general are perhaps not more immoral than in former times, but they are more insistent on regulating their morals in conformity with personal conviction rather than through propulsion of legal enactment. This has created a reaction in self-assertion as to social obligations that has made for lax enforcement of all law. The consequence has been that the criminal element, active and passive, made bold by reason of the incidental immunity from successful prosecution, has come out into the open as perhaps in numbers and daring was never before manifested.

Our evangelist suggest evangelization as the specific for the illness of the social body. Again he has merit in his argument. Crime must be held in check by laws of social defense strictly enforced. Branches of morals, not criminal, are apter to find their cure in the persuasiveness of well-presented propaganda for right as against wrong. This is far more effective than measure of force promulgated in behalf of the nostrums of those who would make their individual dogma dictum for all, with small regard for conscientious election in behalf of society in general.

It will be a near-miracle if the present Congress is able to reduce taxation by $800,000,000 for the year 1921-2, as now indicated. If accomplished, the Republican administration will deserve all the commendation that can be given. The Republican party, in its 1920 platform made it clear that no immediate reduction of taxes could be expected. If, now, the party does far more than it promised to do, it will more than earn the confidence reposed in it by the people.

CRIPPLED HUSBAND SUES HIS WIFE FOR ALIMONY.

Minneapolis, Minn. — The question whether gaining the vote makes women liable to pay alimony is being considered by Judge J. J. Connelley of Hennepin county district court. Benjamin Liss sued his wife, Minnie Liss, for support and alimony. Liss, a peddler, and his wife accumulated considerable property. He was stricken with paralysis two years ago. He said his wife sold their common property and refused to support him from the proceeds. Without the income from the money thus obtained, he said, he must become a public charge.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains often come from weak kidneys, 'Twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Read what a Maysville citizen says: Mrs. William Farley, 128 East Second street, says: "Not long ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me a world of good. I am pleased to recommend them. My back hurt nearly all the time and I couldn't do my washing on account of the misery in my back. I couldn't sleep at night and mornings I could get up feeling all right. I would be dizzy and could see black specks before my eyes. My kidneys didn't act regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. My hands and arms would get numb and cold. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly advertised so I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a box. I began using them and was soon rid of the trouble."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Farley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

New York Letter

by
Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — At last the nutthies to the profiteer has been discovered—the man who makes money-taking the smallest part of his business. And where has he been found? Why, right here on Manhattan island! "Jake" is all the name he care to bother with and runs a restaurant—a very modest one — over near the Pennsylvania Railroad station. A huge blackboard decorates the front of his eating place, where Jake writes his ads and his declarations of policy. He boldly says to the world on that board: "The biggest meal in town for 25 cents. Pay if you've got it. Or pay when you get it." Another broadside printed there the other day was: "Hours for hungry men, 9-11 and 2-4. Don't ask unless you're busted." And still another day: "Why go hungry when Jake trusts you? If you're looking for a job you need that prosperous feeling. Don't hesitate because you're broke." "Sure, they almost all of them pay in time," Jake avers.

Self-confidence! That's the thing that wins in life. And Arthur E. Southern, of Brooklyn, has it. Responding to his wife's suit for separation, he says in an affidavit, "I am 100 per cent in the right and my wife is 100 per cent in the wrong." "He is the only living model husband," said Judge Crosey, in allowing his wife support and counsel fees.

Forty prominent ministers of the city have petitioned for a private showing of the Capentier-Dempsey fight picture — not to censor it but just to see it quietly and without acclamation. Their plea has been granted. In the meantime, Rev. John Welling Areson, rector of the Church of Good Shepherd, has given a showing of the picture for the purpose of raising funds for the church. He says it worked out most successfully.

It isn't philanthropy or even "social welfare;" it is perfectly matter-of-fact business that has led the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria to follow the food market downward in their menu prices. At least that is the attitude of the Home Economics department and the cafeteria directors. "It was a pretty strenuous effort to keep the price as low as we did when market prices were at their height," I was told by the director of the cafeteria which is directly under the National Board of the Y. W. "Then it was public spirit pretty largely that helped us through. We had to raise our prices, of course, but we kept them as low as possible. But now when the market prices fall, OF COURSE our menus reflect that drop. They can't do down in quite the same proportion because our rents are higher than in the war days, even, and so we are doing it. Every time the market drops, we get out a new set of prices. That's only honest business, isn't it?"

Fanny Hurst's first play is bound to be a fiasco to the general public, which, aside from a genuine interest in her, does love to argue about whether or not a short story writer can be a successful playwright and vice versa "Back Pay," which has just opened at the Ethel Theatre, indicates that she can. It is a Wall Street play, and it holds the thrills that always come from that location when it is well handled, and some very human tragedy and psychology as well. Helen MacKellar is excellent in the role of Hester Devins, "the woman who pays"—and then hasn't paid in full.

Down in Sheridan Square, Greenwich Village, lives the reincarnation of the Greek poetess of traditional ages—

The Folly of Cheating Nature

Many people get the idea that they can keep their nerves on edge and their digestion upset year after year, and "get away with it." They sleep only half as much as they should—and never get properly and thoroughly rested.

If you tire out easily, if you are getting pale and anemic, if your food doesn't digest as it should, would it not be well to stop and consider whether coffee or tea is having its effect on you?

The caffeine and thein found in coffee and tea are drugs, as any doctor can tell you. Is it any wonder that the steady use of these drugs sometimes causes serious damage?

If you really want to be fair with yourself, and give yourself the opportunity you deserve in order to do your best work, make up your mind to quit coffee and tea for awhile—and drink delicious, appetizing Postum instead.

Postum permits sound, refreshing sleep which builds strength, energy and endurance.

Order Postum from your Grocer today. Drink this hot, refreshing beverage in place of tea or coffee for 10 days and see what a wonderful difference it will make in the way you feel.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Postum for Health "There's a Reason"

Sappho. Juana C. Clivette is her name and as she herself makes the Sappho announcement there can be reason to doubt it. "I am as old as time," explains this fourteen-year-old girl. "I have been since the beginning. I was Sappho. I am still Sappho reincarnate. Why, then, should I not sing my own songs?" And there seems to be reason to hold out against that. Juana has written thousands of verses, painted several pictures and written some music. She says that she wrote 2,000 lyrics in the past two months, which seems quite sufficient record to justify having once been Sappho, at the very least. Her father and mother are artists.

The lot of kings and queens is a trying one these days. Miss Tillie Weisman, of Arverne, Long Island, is ready to swear that such sentiments are not made Socialistic doctrine. She was elected queen of the Arverne Carnival the other night after a voting contest which has been in progress since July 2. She was to have been crowned at midnight. But the ceremonies ran into difficulties, not the least of which was the fact that the crown vanished just before it was to have been placed upon Miss Weisman's brow. Miss Nettie Lipsitz was her nearest rival, and her friends were stalwart in bulk as well as in friendship. There was some disagreement about the count, it seemed and now both girls are issuing post-election statements explaining that decision or no decision, crown or no crown, each will ride as queen in her royal procession when it comes off.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington. — "Mr. Lloyd George has gone to some lengths in the House of Commons in defending the Anglo-Japanese alliance," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "He declares that because Japan faithfully adhered to the alliance during the war, Great Britain cannot now refuse the Japanese request for its renewal. He says that, had it not been for the fact that Japanese ships chased German raiders in the Pacific, Australian and New Zealand troops could not have been transported to the fighting front in the early days of the war."

"It is very instructive to learn from the British premier at this time of the valiant service performed on the seas by the Japanese navy. It is a historical fact that the notorious German raider Emden, that did so much damage in the Pacific was cornered and sunk by an Australian warship. It is also a fact that the German raiding squadron under Admiral von Spee was attacked off the coast of Chile by a British force of inferior strength and came off victorious, only to meet another British squadron at the Falkland Islands and suffer destruction. It may be that the existence of a Japanese navy had a psychological effect on the German Pacific raiders, but history is silent on any blows struck by the Japanese in ridding the seas of those pests."

"If Mr. Lloyd George is so solicitous about the aid rendered by Japan to the allied cause why does he not give some consideration to what America contributed to the success of the war? If the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance is to be granted because Japan helped the allies, is it not as reasonable for the United States to favor the dissolution of that alliance because of what the United States did in France?"

"Mr. Lloyd George attempts to reassure us by saying that the renewal does not mean that we are to continue an alliance of this kind on any point against any one else and certainly not against the United States." Of course not. Nobody suspects Great Britain of scheming with Japan for an attack on this country. But while the British premier says his country will never be against the United States, he is careful not to state that Great Britain would be for the United States in the event of a war between this country and Japan as Canada and Australia have done. The mere existence of the British alliance with Japan, and the renewal of it under existing circumstances tends to encourage Japan in the aggressive attitude she has assumed on many questions in issue with the United States.

"When the World War opened Great Britain was in immediate need of supplies that only this country could furnish. If war suddenly broke between the United States and Japan, we would be similarly in need of material aid from Great Britain, not in the form of warships and armies, but of munitions, cargo ships, and, possibly, loans of money. We would like to hear from Mr. Lloyd George as to his probable policy under these circumstances. Would he then recall what the United States did for Great Britain in the hour of her distress, or would he continue to think only of the fanciful work of the Japanese navy in clearing the Pacific of German raiders? Would the role of a friendly neutral be compatible with her alliance with Japan?"

Every really first class horse in America and Canada is eligible to start. What races they will make!

While predicting that The Kentucky Futurity will be one of the greatest colt races ever witnessed, the best judges of trotting contend that the races for: The Walnut Hall Cup (Monday, October 3), The Transylvania (Thursday, October 6) and The Castleton (Tuesday, October 11) the three big events for trotters of all ages will be bitterly fought out in time so fast that they will be the talk of the whole country for years and that one of the three will go down in trotting history as the "Race of the Century."

Practically all of Lexington's hotel space has been reserved; and every private box—88 in number—in the grand stand has been sold to purchasers from 21 states and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer will motor to Lexington Thursday to attend the Blue Grass Fair.

The following appears in the current issue of "Reel Facts," a moving picture journal published at Cincinnati:

"Evans Davidson, chief projectionist of Mr. Russell's Opera House of Maysville, Ky., was in Cincinnati last week, demonstrating to several of the big houses an improved type of shutter for motion picture machines. Mr. Davidson has been perfecting this patent for several years and those who have been privileged to try it, seem to be very enthusiastic over it."

ADMINISTRATION IS WORKING OUT OF WELTER RAPIDLY

President (Cris Republican Record in) C. L. T. Answering White's Attack on the Admin.istration.

Washington, Sept. 7. — President Warren G. Harding, in a letter reviewing the achievements to date of the Republican Administration, particularly with reference to Congress, declares that "surveying the national situation as a whole, it is plain that we are working our way out of a welter of waste and prodigal spending at a most impressive rate."

The letter, made public Tuesday, was written by the President under date of August 29 to Senator Medill McCormick, Illinois, and, it is understood, will be used in the campaign in New Mexico, where Senator John O. Burns, appointed to fill out the unexpired term of A. B. Fall, Secretary of the Interior, is a candidate for election. The letter, it is understood, also is considered by Republican leaders as a reply to attacks on the legislative record of the Republican Congress by George White, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and other leading Democrats.

"We have made much progress and retrenchment and greatly increased efficiency," the President asserts. "I cannot but account it a monumental accomplishment which has marked the work of the extraordinary session down to the time of its recess."

Looking to the future Mr. Harding in his letter expresses the confident hope "that Congress, after the recess and before the end of the extraordinary session, will adopt both the tariff and taxation measures, and that along with these it will pass the bill to permit funding the debt owed us by foreign Governments."

"This, I hope," the President adds, "will shortly be followed by arrangements under which the debtor countries will begin paying interest on their obligations. Likewise I am confident that the bill facilitating the funding of the debt of the railways to the United States will become law during the extraordinary session, thus insuring a large and immediate demand for employment of men now idle."

The Republican Congress preceding the advent of the present Administration is credited by Mr. Harding with having "patiently and assiduously labored to reduce expenditures" with results "which we can summarize in the statement that the appropriations for the current fiscal year will aggregate four and a quarter billion dollars and that is three-quarters of a billion less than the expenditures for the previous fiscal year."

MAYOR GALVIN RESIGNS RE-NOMINATION.

John Galvin, Mayor of Cincinnati, will not make the race for re-election this fall because of the condition of his health.

That was the announcement made late Tuesday by Charles F. Hornberger, Director of Public Service, following a conference attended by Mayor Galvin, Safety Director Taylor, Mr. Hornberger and Mayor Galvin's special physician at his home on McGregor avenue Tuesday afternoon.

The Mayor returned home from a vacation trip on Monday evening. He was so exhausted from the trip that his physicians refused to permit him to leave his home.

COUNTY SCHOOL ENROLLMENT IS ENCOURAGING.
